

AAEOPP Emerging Leaders Institute

*The task of leadership is not to put greatness into people, but to elicit it, for the greatness is there already. John Buchan

*Applications are being accepted March 16, 2020-March 23, 2020

What is AAEOPP's Emerging Leaders Institute? AAEOPP Emerging Leaders Institute (ELI) is a great way to begin your leadership journey in your state association. The focus of ELI is to develop successful leaders who have the desire to become involved in TRIO leadership at the state level, then in regional and beyond. With an emphasis on self-exploration and discovery of goals, ELI allows participants to meet and connect with other AAEOPP members. Ultimately, ELI graduates become involved in their state and/or the SAEOPP association.

The candidate must have supervisor, institution/agency support, and money in their program budget for conference registration, rooms, meals, travel, etc. in order to participate in ELI training and attend the AAEOPP conference for one year.

How long is the AAEOPP Emerging Leaders Institute? ELI participants will embark upon a one year training and implementation initiative to discover and sharpen their leadership skills.

What are the benefits of participating in the Emerging Leaders Institution?

- ❖ Learning about the leadership of AAEOPP
- ❖ Being able to identify your preferred leadership
- ❖ Understanding the importance of team building
- ❖ Learning how to be an ethical leader
- ❖ Mentoring by seasoned TRIO professionals
- ❖ Gaining interpersonal skills
- ❖ Recognition at the AAEOPP Annual Conference
- ❖ Insight to help you select the best leadership path in your state or SAEOPP

How can I get involved in the Emerging Leaders Institute?

- ❖ Nominations - Candidates are nominated by their TRIO Director.
- ❖ Application – Candidates must submit an application and be selected to participate.
- ❖ Leadership Potential - Candidates must show present success or future potential.
